16 of 2007 s. 31
10 of 2015 s. 109
Cap. 438

16.–(1) Where in relation to any assessment–

- (a) no notice of objection has been given; or
- (b) a notice of objection has been given and–
 - (i) the assessment has been amended under subsection (1) of section 63 of the Tax Administration Act;
 - (ii) a notice of objection has been given and the assessment has been amended under subsection (3) of section 63 of Tax Administration Act in such a way that no appeal will be available against the amendment;
 - (iii) an appeal has not been preferred against any determination of an objection by the Commissioner General; or
 - (iv) the objection has been finally determined on assessment of tax on an appeal, the assessment as made, or as amended, or as determined on appeal, shall be final and conclusive.

(2) This section shall not prevent the Commissioner General from making any additional assessment which does not involve re-opening of any matter that has been determined on an appeal or an assessment.

(3) When any fraud or any gross or wilful neglect has been committed by or on behalf of any person in connection with or in relation to any tax, duty or levy, the Commissioner General may make an additional assessment on that person notwithstanding that it involves re-opening a matter which has been determined on such appeal.

[s. 15]

PART IV APPEALS GENERALLY

Right of appeal to Board and to Tribunal

Acts Nos.

15 of 2004 s. 60

16 of 2007 s. 32

10 of 2015 s. 110

Cap. 438

17.—(1) A person who is aggrieved by an objection decision of the Commissioner General made under the Tax Administration Act may appeal to the Board.

(2) The Board shall not entertain an appeal pursuant to this section unless—

- (a) a notice of appeal is served upon the Commissioner General within thirty days following the date on which a notice of final determination of assessment of tax or any other decision by the Commissioner General in accordance with subsection (1) is served on the appellant; and
- (b) the appeal is lodged with the Board within forty-five days following the date on which the notice of final determination of assessment of tax or any other decision by the Commissioner General in accordance with subsection (1) is served on the appellant.

(3) A party who is aggrieved by the decision of the Board may appeal against that decision to the Tribunal within thirty days from the date of service of the decision and proceedings of the Board and shall serve to the opposite party the notice of intention to appeal within fifteen days from the date of the decision.

(4) The Board or Tribunal, may extend the limit of time set under subsection (3) or subsection (4) if it is satisfied that the failure by a party to give notice of appeal, lodge an appeal or to effect service to the opposite party was occasioned by absence from the United Republic, sickness or other reasonable cause, subject to such terms and conditions as to costs as it may consider just and appropriate.

Cap. 438 (5) Where an objector prefers an appeal to the Board or to the Tribunal, any tax deposited pursuant to section 62(5) of the Tax Administration Act shall continue to remain deposited with Commissioner General pending the final determination of the appeal.

[s. 16]

Powers of Board
and Tribunal

18.—(1) The Board and the Tribunal shall respectively have the power to—

- (a) take evidence on oath;
- (b) resolve any complaint or appeal by mediation, conciliation or arbitration;
- (c) issue warrants of arrest for failure to comply with summons;
- (d) order payment of costs in relation to any matter referred to the Board or the Tribunal;
- (e) dismiss any matter before it; and
- (f) adjourn the hearing of any proceedings before it.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Board or the Tribunal shall have the power to summon and hear any witness and receive evidence in the manner and to the same extent as if it were a court exercising civil jurisdiction in a civil case and the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code, relating to summoning of witnesses, the taking of testimony on oath, and noncompliance with a witness summons shall apply in relation to an appeal before the Board but the Tribunal may not admit any fresh evidence save in the circumstance in which the High Court may admit fresh evidence on a first appeal in a civil case.

[s. 17]

Cap. 33

PART V

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD AND TRIBUNAL

Procedure on hearing

19.—(1) Proceedings of the Board and Tribunal shall be of judicial nature and shall be conducted on such occasions and at the places as the Chairman may direct.

(2) In every proceedings before the Board and before the Tribunal-

- (a) the appellant shall appear either in person or by his duly authorised agent on the day and at the time fixed for hearing of the appeal but if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Board or Tribunal, as the case may be, that owing to absence of the appellant from the United Republic, or due to sickness or any other reasonable cause, he is prevented from attending or cause to be represented at the hearing of the appeal on the date and the time fixed for hearing, the Board or the Tribunal, as the case may be, may adjourn the hearing of the appeal for such reasonable time as it may think appropriate;
- (b) the onus of proving that the assessment or decision in respect of which an appeal is preferred is excessive or erroneous shall be on the appellant;
- (c) the appellate authority may confirm, reduce, increase or annul the assessment concerned or make such other order thereon as it may think fit;
- (d) the costs of the appeal shall be in the discretion of the appellate authority;
- (e) the appellate authority shall, within fifteen days of its decision, cause a notice of such decision and of the date thereof to be issued and such notice shall be served on the parties to the appeal; and
- (f) where the decision of the appellate authority results in any amendment to an assessment, the assessment shall be amended accordingly and the Commissioner General shall cause a notice setting out such amendment and the amount of tax payable to be served on the person assessed.

[s. 18]

20. Where any appeal is lodged under this Part against any decision or act of the Commissioner General which affects, or is likely to affect two or more persons, then-

- (a) a person lodging an appeal shall serve a copy of all the appeal documents on all other such persons who shall be entitled to appear on the hearing of the appeal as if they were parties thereto; and
- (b) where the Board considers that any other person be joined, it may order that a copy of all the appeal documents shall be served on such other person who shall be entitled to appear on the hearing of the appeal as if he were a party thereto.

[s. 19]

Opinion of members

21. For the purposes of determining any matter, the Chairman or the Vice Chairman shall not be bound by the opinion of any member but, if he disagrees with the opinion of any member, he shall record the opinion of such member or members differing with him and reasons for his disagreement.

[s. 20]

Disclosure of interest

22.—(1) Where a member present at a sitting of the Board or the Tribunal at which any matter in which a member or immediate family of a member is directly or indirectly interested in a private capacity, is the subject of consideration, that member shall as soon as is practicable after or before the commencement of the proceedings of the Board or the Tribunal, disclose that interest and shall not, unless the Board and the Tribunal otherwise direct, take part in the determination of the appeal or give an opinion on any question relating to that matter.

(2) A disclosure of interest made by a member shall be recorded as part of the proceedings in relation to the matter under determination.

(3) A member who sits and takes part in the proceedings of the Board or the Tribunal in contravention of subsection (1) commits an offence under this Act.

[s. 21]

Acts Nos.
3 of 2021 s. 71
5 of 2022 s. 117

23.—(1) The Secretary or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall advise all parties in writing of the time and place of the hearing, and shall give the parties not less than fourteen days notice.

(2) A hearing of appeal shall be in public unless a party to the proceedings otherwise applies and the Board or the Tribunal directs that the proceedings or part of it, be heard in camera.

(3) Parties may appear in person at a hearing or be represented by any other person being an advocate or any other person registered as tax consultant, accountant or auditor and the Commissioner General may be represented by any person duly authorised on that behalf.

(4) Where a party to the proceedings or a person duly appointed by him fails to appear at the hearing, the Board or the Tribunal shall consider the appeal in the manner it thinks fit.

(5) Evidence before the Board and the Tribunal may be given orally or through affidavits or in such other manner as the Board or the Tribunal may deem fit.

(6) During the proceedings, the Board or the Tribunal shall not be bound by the rules or practice as to evidence and may seek to be informed in relation to any matter in such manner as it thinks fit as may result in the expeditious determination of an appeal.

(7) A party to an appeal may, at any stage of the proceedings before the judgement is delivered by the Board or Tribunal as the case may be, apply for the appeal to be settled amicably.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (7), the Board or Tribunal shall—

- (a) require the parties to report the outcome of the amicable settlement within a specified time and the Board or Tribunal shall issue a final order with respect to such amicable settlement;
- (b) issue the final order upon submission of a written settlement agreement duly signed by both parties; and

- (c) not entertain an issue which has been settled amicably by parties under this section.

[s. 22]

Witnesses

24.—(1) The Board or the Tribunal may call any person to attend at a hearing and give evidence including the production of any document if the Board or the Tribunal believes such evidence will assist in its deliberations.

(2) A person summoned to attend and give evidence to the Board or the Tribunal shall be paid allowances and expenses at the rates specified by the Board or the Tribunal.

[s. 23]

Enforcement of decisions
of Board and
Tribunal

25.—(1) The Board or Tribunal, as the case may be, may deliver its decisions at the end of a hearing, but in any case the decision shall be in writing and sent to all parties to the proceedings within fourteen days of the delivery of the decision.

(2) The Secretary or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall serve to all parties copies of all decisions duly endorsed and the date of issue marked on.

(3) A decree or order of the Board or the Tribunal given in the exercise of its jurisdiction under this Act shall be enforceable and executed as if it were a decree or order issued by a court of law.

(4) An appeal shall not operate as a bar for execution of any decree or order of the Board or Tribunal.

[s. 24]

Appeal to Court of Appeal
Act No.
3 of 2016 s. 28

26.—(1) A person who is aggrieved by the decision and decree of the Tribunal may prefer an appeal to the Court of Appeal.

(2) Appeal to the Court of Appeal shall lie on matters involving questions of law only and the provisions of the Appellate Jurisdiction Act and the rules made thereunder shall apply mutatis mutandis to appeals from the decision of the Tribunal.

[s. 25]

Cap. 141

Costs
